The hiring policy shall contain the conditions upon which hiring shall be made, and a schedule of rates and charges, which shall be reviewed every twelve (12) months.

4. THE BY-LAWS

By-laws shall be made, amended or repealed as provided in the Constitution, to assist with:

- the proper and diligent business and administration of the Club; and
- the clarification of procedures for the management and administrative arrangements required for the Club about which the Constitution may be silent.

The procedure for making, amending or repealing a By-law shall be as follows:

- the Board of Management, on its own initiatives or from representation from a Member or number of Members, may decide to make, amend or repeal one (1) or more By-laws;
- each proposal accepted by the Board of Management for consideration shall be posted on an appropriate notice board for a period of not less than fourteen (14) days for comment by Members, to be made in writing to the Secretary of the Club, before the Board of Management resolves any change to the By-law(s);
- the Board of Management shall decide upon each new By-law which they shall then cause to be posted on an appropriate notice board for a period of not less than fourteen (14) days;
- By-laws may also be made, amended or repealed by the Notice of Motion at a General Meeting of the Club;
- the Secretary of the Club shall ensure an adequate supply of current printed By-laws is available for issue to Members upon request; and
- the Board of Management shall exercise its responsibility to provide By-laws with the same skill and diligence as that required for the maintenance of a competent and up-to-date Constitution.

5. THE STANDING ORDERS

- a) These Standing Orders are applicable for all meetings of the Club, the Board of Management and (as far as appropriate) for meetings of committees, and shall be construed subject to the provisions of the Constitution.
- b) Where a meeting lapses due to the lack of a quorum and an arrangement is made for another meeting in its stead, then all the business of the lapsed meeting shall take precedence on the agenda for the subsequent meeting.
- c) Any Member desiring to speak during the course of a meeting shall rise in his or her place and, only when called upon by the Chairperson, shall address the meeting. If two (2) or more Members rise simultaneously, the Chairperson shall call upon the Member who first caught his or her attention.
- d) When the Chairperson rises to speak, any Member standing shall sit down.
- e) Subject to these Standing Orders, the mover of a motion shall be limited in time for his or her speech to five (5) minutes, and all subsequent speakers, including the mover of any amendment and the right of reply, shall be limited in time to five (5) minutes.
- f) No Member other than the mover of a motion or an amendment to a motion shall speak to it until it has been seconded. A motion or an amendment lapsing for want of a seconder shall not be recorded in the Minutes.
- g) A motion or amendment before the Chairperson shall not be withdrawn except by its mover and by leave of the meeting. No motion shall be withdrawn while any amendment is under discussion or after any amendment has been adopted.
- h) The proposer of any motion or amendment shall submit it in writing unless otherwise agreed by the Chairperson.
- i) A motion or amendment being considered by the meeting may be reworded by the mover subject to the leave of the meeting.
- j) No Member shall speak more than once to any question, except that the mover of the motion (but not of an amendment) shall have a right of reply, which shall close the debate. An amendment shall constitute a separate question from the original motion and from any other amendment.
- k) A Member moving a motion or amendment shall be deemed to have spoken to it. A Member seconding it without speaking to it may reserve the right to speak to it subsequently.
- l) When an amendment is before the Chairperson, discussion shall be confined to that amendment. No further amendment shall be proposed until the amendment before the Chairperson has been disposed of.
- m) The Chairperson shall, as far as practicable, call on speakers for and against the motion or amendment alternatively, subject to the right of the seconder to speak immediately after the mover. If two (2) consecutive speakers have both argued for and against a motion or amendment, and there is no Member wishing to argue the opposite views, or in the case of a motion, to move an amendment, the motion or the amendment shall, subject, in the case of a motion, to the mover's right of reply, be put without further debate.
- n) Any Member may rise on a point of order, which shall take precedence over all other business. The point of order must be raised at the time the alleged irregularity occurred. An explanation or question shall not constitute a point of order. The Chairperson shall immediately rule on any point of order.
- o) Any Member disagreeing with the Chairperson's ruling on a point of order may move dissent. Such motion shall be put forthwith without debate.
- p) A Member who has not already participated in the debate may at any time, whether another speaker has the floor or not, move "That the question be now put", which motion, if accepted by the Chairperson, shall be put without amendment or debate. The Chairperson shall have absolute discretion to accept or refuse the motion. The Chairperson may, without requiring a motion, put the question if he or she feels that adequate discussion has taken place. In either case, the mover of a motion shall retain the right of reply. If an amendment is before the Chairperson, the closure motion shall be deemed to close the debate on the amendment only.

- q) A Member may at any time move “That the speaker be no longer heard” or “That the speaker be heard for a further limited period only”. Such motion shall be put without amendment or debate. No other motion, except a motion dealing with the speaker’s time, shall be moved while the speaker has the floor.
- r) A motion to alter or rescind a resolution of a previous meeting can only be moved after the circulation of a Notice of Motion, which cannot occur until a period of at least two (2) months has elapsed since the original resolution was passed.
- s) A Member may move “That the debate (or meeting) be now adjourned”. Discussion shall be in order but only amendments as to time and/or place shall be permitted. The motion shall take precedence over other business before the Chairperson except for points of order or personal explanations.
- t) Any of Standing Orders (a) to (s) may be suspended on a majority vote of Members present. A motion to this effect shall be open to debate.
- u) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, any decision made by a validly constituted meeting shall not be void by reason only of a departure from these Standing Orders which was not detected until after the matter was resolved.
- v) These Standing Orders can only be altered by a General Meeting of the Club for which due notice is given to Members.
- w) Any matter not dealt with in these Standing Orders shall be governed by the customary procedure at meetings.
